We don't wear pyjamas to school.

We wear a lovely uniform

This is the Headmistress Mrs Bell. She takes care of the school. The grown ups will look after you at school.

This is YOUR teacher Mr Reese. He takes care of YOU! So remember to tell him where you are going.

It is amazing.

We are so pleased with it. Our staff are amazed at how easy it is to access.

It is beautiful.

We can't wait to share it with our families.

CLAIM YOUR EBOOK:

Follow us on Twitter from the school twitter account:

Email us to confirm your interest & reserve your eBook: info@honeycombbooks.co.uk

The first 850 new schools will be offered free eBooks.

Send us the photos in one batch via WeTransfer, with idiot-proof labelling of the names & titles as you want them to appear in the book. e.g. This is the headmistress, Ms

Honey.

You do not need a WeTransfer account. It is a free and safe file sharing service. Phone photo quality is perfect. We cannot use pixilated images or photos embedded or combined in PDFs, emails or Word.

5 photos:

- The school,
- A girl & boy in September uniform & in P.E kit,
- Head of the lower school (or similar)
- The class teacher.

School: What will children see first on their first day? The entrance or classroom can also work. Sunshine helps. We need the name of the school exactly as you would like it to appear on the front & back page (preferably in its simplest form).

Uniform: Keep shoes in. Think about demographics. Smiling & at eye level works well.

Head and teacher:

Include the school preference between Head Teacher, Headteacher, Head... as well as Ms, Mr, Dr... Focus on faces. Use simple backgrounds. If the class teacher is unconfirmed then use a group shot of the EYFS team.

Photo submission deadline: Friday 27th May 2022.

Schools will receive a link to send to parents live until October 2022.
